STUDENTS: HOW TO FIND YOUR FACULTY ADVISOR?

UNDERGRADUATE REGISTRATION PROCESS

- Students with a financial or Dean of Students hold will not be able to register.
- Students need to see their faculty advisor prior to registration to discuss course selection and to receive their PIN.
- Students are NOT excused from class to register. This includes cutting class or leaving class early.
- Online registration will proceed by student classification; one day for all students in each class to register for their courses. Classes will go online in alphabetical groupings at 10:50 a.m. on their designated day. Fall in-season varsity athletes will precede the alphabetical groupings, starting at 8:45.
- Students will register for major, minor, core, and elective courses on their class registration day and are limited to a maximum of 20 credits.
- The online registration system will be active for each class until 11:59 p.m. Then the student's online registration and PIN will be turned off until Thursday, April 21, when add/drop begins.
- There will be one day between each class registration for departments to review registrations and for students who missed their registration to register in person in the Registrar's Office.
- The University reserves the right to cancel courses for which there are insufficient registration or change time codes or professors as deemed necessary.
- Most courses will be open during the online registration period. Some departments (with courses that have specific populations) may incrementally increase the maximum number of spaces in some of their courses by class.

ONLINE COURSES

All full-time students classified as Juniors and Seniors are eligible to enroll in one online course for the Fall 2016 semester without needing prior Dean's Office approval.

- Please be aware that online courses are condensed (typically only 7 weeks in duration) and therefore rigorous. Online courses often have "irregular" start and end dates (sometimes beginning at the halfway point of the semester). As with semester-long lecture-based courses, class enrollment is firmly capped, and availability for full-time Juniors and Seniors is limited.
- Note: The one-course online maximum per semester for full-time students will be strictly enforced. Any full-time student who registers for more than one online course for the fall semester will be automatically dropped from ALL online courses. Further, the student will not be permitted to register for additional courses until Thursday, April 21, after all undergraduates have registered.

WAITLIST COURSES

The waitlist for courses will be turned on at the beginning of online registration, except for courses with maximums that are increased incrementally.

- When a space opens up in a class, the first student on the waitlist will be notified via his/her Fairfield student e-mail account, with instructions on how to register for the waitlisted class. They will have 24 hours from the time the email is sent to register for the class. If there is a conflict in his/her schedule, they will have to resolve that issue before registering for the waitlisted class. If they fail to register for the class by the deadline stated in the email, they will be taken off of the waitlist for that class.
- The use of the wait lists and the process of notifying students will run from Thursday, April 21 through Friday, September 2. During this period, the Registrar's office will not honor write-ins for closed courses from faculty. The electronic waitlist will be the only mechanism for filling available openings in courses. After September 2, students can register for classes with open seats on a first come, first serve basis. During the Add/Drop period of September 6-12, the Registrar will accept write-ins from faculty for closed courses.

DEGREE EVALUATION ON THE WEB: "DEGREE WORKS"

All matriculated undergraduate students have a degree evaluation online, showing the requirement of his/her program, including core, majors, and minors. To run a degree evaluation on my.Fairfield.edu:

- 1) Go to the home page of my.Fairfield.edu
- 2) Click on the blue button with the graduation cap that says "Degree Eval"
This will take you directly to your degree evaluation.

Students should print a degree evaluation and bring it with them when they meet with their advisor.

INTERNSHIPS

Internships provide the opportunity for practical experience in a career field related to a student’s major. Most departments and programs in the College of Arts and Sciences offer credit for internships in appropriate agencies and business firms in Fairfield, nearby communities, as well as New York City and New Haven. Majors who wish to take advantage of these opportunities should consult their department chair or program internship coordinator about eligibility requirements and other details.

Please visit fairfield.edu/internships for more information.

INDEPENDENT STUDY

Independent studies are available in most majors and programs in the College of Arts and Sciences. Students wishing to pursue an intensive research or other academic experience must consult first with a sponsoring faculty member.

JESUIT UNIVERSITIES HUMANITARIAN ACTION NETWORK (JUHAN) FALL 2016 COURSES

The Jesuit Universities Humanitarian Action Network (JUHAN) was created to make sophistication in humanitarian response a hallmark of Jesuit undergraduate education. Grounded in the Jesuit tradition of developing “men and women for others,” JUHAN seeks to advance both undergraduate humanitarian education by bringing students into the professional field at an early stage in their education as well as by providing students who are not pursuing humanitarian action careers with the knowledge and skills needed to fulfill their responsibilities as engaged citizens.

JUHAN focus on developing an educational program that places emphasis on the ethical dimensions of humanitarian action while leveraging the centuries-old Jesuit commitment to education globally to reach across institutional, national and international boundaries and provide students and faculty with a wide range of resources and opportunities. JUHAN also provides an opportunity for faculty, students and staff at Jesuit Universities to collaborate on joint project, research programs and curriculum development.

SERVICE LEARNING FALL 2016 COURSES

Service Learning is a kind of experiential education that connects classroom learning with community service. In collaboration with community organizations, students learn about and apply tools of the academic discipline and specific course concepts in their service experiences. This combination enhances academic learning and civic awareness while also providing a meaningful service to and with the community. Course credit and grading are for the learning not for the service. The service activities for the course are similar to the readings, lectures, class discussions and other assignments – all are contexts for student learning.

Courses will appear with the following notation in the right-hand column of the schedule of classes: SerL or SerL Option

SerL: All students in the course are required to participate in service learning.

SerL Option: Students have a choice to participate in service learning as a final project and/or in lieu of another comparable project.

CH 0072/PH 0218 – Philosophy and Biochemistry of Food and Eating Practices

An essential component of our daily lives, food offers itself as one of the most interesting topics of cultural and scientific discussion. This course is designed to analyze food and eating practices from the twofold perspective of philosophy and biochemistry. The intersections of philosophy and biochemistry will be highlighted in topics such as “Food as Art” (juxtaposing the aesthetic and biomolecular properties of food) and “Food in Culture” (contrasting how societies prepare and eat food with the nutrition and technology of food science). The course combines lecture with activities such as trips to museums, guest lectures, and in-class laboratory activities. Note: This course counts as a science core course but does not satisfy requirements for the chemistry major or minor. Students may take either CH 33 or CH 72 as a core science requirement, but not both courses. Three credits. Prerequisites: PH 10 or PH 101.

The course features multiple practicum assignments designed to provide a thorough learning experience and to illustrate camera, lighting and audio theory. This is a required course for all FTM majors and minors, and it is an applied VPA core course. Three credits.

HI 0265 – History of the Indian Subcontinent: Colonialism, Nationalism, and Democracy, c.1857-Today

Faced with unrivaled questions of diversity, poverty, and scale, South Asia has been a crucial laboratory in the making of political modernity. India, with a population numbering over a billion, is the world’s largest democracy. Pakistan was the world’s first Muslim “homeland” and “nation.” Beginning with an examination of the colonial period, this course reconsiders partition, and then follows the postcolonial trajectories of India, Pakistan, and Bangladesh. We explore innovative and divergent imaginations of the future, and of democracy in particular. We encounter Hindu nationalists, communists, socialists, liberals, anarchists, Islamists, and Muslim nationalists, revolutionaries, and the inescapable Mahatma Gandhi. Prerequisite: HI 10. Three credits.

HI 0297 – Power, Politics, History: US – Latin American Relations, from the 1800s-Present

In this course, students examine the political, economic, social, and cultural repercussions of U.S.-Latin American relations from the mid-19th century to the present. We will study cases of overt US political intervention and conflict, as well as less dramatic but ongoing forms of influence. While we will seek to understand what has led the United States to intervene so frequently in Latin America, our work will also pay close attention to the multiple ways that social actors throughout the Americas have constructed their national and cultural imaginaries across time, and in dialogue with one another. Prerequisite: HI 10. Three credits.

MA 0016 – Concepts of Calculus

This course introduces differentiation and integration, and shows how these ideas are related. The course illustrates how important and interesting applied questions, when expressed in the language of mathematical functions, turn out to be questions about derivatives and integrals and, thus, can be solved using calculus. The basic concepts of calculus are numerically, algebraically, and geometrically investigated, using graphing technology to illustrate many of the underlying geometrical ideas. MA 16 is a terminal core course and is not a prerequisite for any other course. Please note that MA 11 Precalculus is not an appropriate course to take before taking MA 16. Three credits.
